About the Indira Gandhi Rashtriya Manav Sangrahalaya (IGNTU)

The Indira Gandhi Rashtriya Manav Sangrahalaya (National Museum of Mankind), an autonomous organisation of the Ministry of Culture, Government of India is conceived as an organic whole, a growing movement, to depict the story of humankind in time and space. The Sangrahalaya is involved in generating a new museum movement in India to demonstrate the simultaneous validity of human cultures and the plurality of alternatives for articulation. The innovative aspects of the Organisation are its open air and indoor exhibitions, built with active involvement of traditional artisans and experts drawn from different community groups, and the 'Education and Outreach' and 'Salvage' activities for revitalization of vanishing but valuable cultural traditions. The Sangrahalaya is working for national integration and promote research and training, and inter-organisational networking. The IGRMS, through its exhibitions and salvage activities, demonstrates the aesthetic qualities of India's traditional life styles, local knowledge and value nurtured for thousands of years, and cautions the people against unprecedented destruction of ecology and environment, local values and customs.

Need for a Course on Museology

In the twenty first century there is an increase in the number of museums managed by government, public and private sector. In fact there has been an increase in the number of small museums with interesting concepts. In proportion to this, there is dearth of skilled human resource for the management and upkeep of the museums on one hand and conserving the specimens on the other. Only a few Universities have museology course. In Central India there is not a single course, diploma or degree in museology. Keeping this in mind, it is proposed to open a P. G. Diploma course in Museology at IGRMS, Bhopal which is one of the best ethnographic museums in the world.

Regulations

1. The One Year Programme in Museology will be titled "Post Graduate (PG) Diploma in Museology".
2. Minimum eligibility for the said diploma in Museology will be graduation in any stream from a UGC recognized Indian & Foreign university (as per the AIU foreign equivalence list) having secured a minimum of 50% aggregate in case of General and OBC categories and 45% in case of candidates belonging to SC/ST categories are eligible to apply.
3. The total intake of the students for the PG diploma in Museology will initially be 20. Reservation of seats in this course will be in accordance with the Government policy. The selection criterion is through an entrance test, and a personal interaction if necessary. For in-service or sponsored candidates it will be only through interview.

4. The course content teaching and evaluation will be bilingual (English and Hindi).
5. The PG Diploma in Museology will be conducted in the Semester mode. First semester will have 4 courses/papers of four credits each. In the second semester, Paper V, VI, VII and VIII will have four credits each.
6. An important component of this programme is developing among the students museum skills. In addition, the student will submit a report on the one month internship which they carry out in IGRMS or in any museum of the country, with the prior approval of the Director, IGRMS.
7. The PG diploma in Museology will be monitored by Joint Coordination Committee (JCC), consisting of six members under the Chairpersonship of the Director, IGRMS. Two more members will be nominated from IGRMS. As this course is affiliated to IGNTU, Amarkantak, Co-Chairperson, one Member Secretary and one member will represent the IGNTU.
8. The names of the courses and their respective credits are given in the curriculum framework. The total credit of the courses will be 32.
9. The last two courses namely museum skills development and Internship will aim towards developing practical skills and research potentiality among students. They also aim towards increasing the employability of the students.
