The IGNTU, a Central University, with its Pan India jurisdiction, has established its own regional campus and recognized Intuitions/Universities/Centers of national and international repute as centers of excellence. It is a National University with the sole objective of offering value-medicine, tribal tourism, military art and culinary studies on marginalized group in association with organization like IITTM, ICI, IIDS, Kovida Ltd, BSS and SSRDP with the aim to create an ambience for the larger mutual benefits of the partner institutions.

In view of the aims and objectives of IGNTU the major thrust shall be on providing better opportunities to students of all sections of society, especially to the tribal population of the country for pursuing higher studies and taking up interdisciplinary research and thereby increase the possibilities of employability.

The Indira Gandhi Rastriya Manav Sangrahalaya (National Museum of Mankind), an autonomous origination of the Ministry of Culture, Government of India, registered under the SOCIETIES REGISTRATION ACT, XXI of 1860 is conceived as an organic whole, a growing movement, to depict the story of humankind in time and space. The Sangrahalaya is involved in generating a new museum movement in India to demonstrate the simultaneous validity of human cultures and the plurality of alternatives for articulation. The innovative aspects of the Organization are its open air and indoor exhibitions, built with active involvement of traditional artisans and experts drawn from different community groups, and the 'Education and Outreach' and 'salvage' activities for revitalization of vanishing but valuable cultural traditions. The Sangrahalaya is working for national integration and promote research and training, and inter-organizational networking. The IGRMS, through its exhibitions and salvage activates, demonstrates the aesthetic qualities of India's traditional life styles, local knowledge and value nurtured for thousands of years, and cautions the people against unprecedented destruction of ecology and environment, local values and customs.

Both the Organizations agree in principal that:

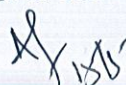

- a) Both the University and IGRMS shall work towards strengthening Museum and Museology management education in the country. One such way shall be through offering PG Diploma Programmes in museology under the collaborative schemes at IGRMS and the degree of this Programmes shall be awarded by IGNTU.

- b) The title of the programme to be offered by IGRMS shall be as under:

PG Diploma in Museology (2 Semester) (as per the UGC and IGNTU norms) and shall be run under the collaborative schemes of IGNTU.
